EWTN Names Ryan Flood as Legacy Giving Advisor

Irondale, AL (EWTN) – EWTN Global Catholic Network is pleased to announce that Ryan T. Flood, FCEP, has been named to the position of Legacy Giving Advisor. In this new role, he will assist those who wish to learn more about the many legacy giving opportunities available to those who wish to support the Network founded by Mother Angelica.

“Ryan brings more than 18 years experience in the area of charitable estate planning to the Network and holds the designation of Fellow in Charitable Estate Planning (FCEP),” said Vice President of Mission Advancement Scott Brown. “I’m thrilled to have Ryan join us at EWTN. He is a great addition to our Mission Advancement team.”

Prior to serving at EWTN, Ryan worked in both the Dioceses of Raleigh, N.C. and Arlington, Va. as the Director of Planned Giving. He is a member of the National Association of Charitable Gift Planners and the North Carolina Planned Giving Council.

“My promise to everyone with whom I meet is to listen carefully, pay attention to what is in their best interest, to offer solutions that reflect their values and priorities, and to treat the each planning conversation with absolute confidentiality,” Ryan said.

Ryan and his wife Mary are parents of 10 children and reside in North Carolina.
